

You are in your business for two reasons:

1. To share your expertise with the world and to make things better/easier/faster/more fun/etc. for other people.
2. To make a living for yourself!

So focus on those activities that fulfill BOTH these outcomes instead of one or the other.